About the Joint Italian Arab Chamber of Commerce

The JIACC is a non-profit private association with a strong bilateral vocation. Born withing the Union of Arab Chambers, it is officially recognised by the Arab League as well as by the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affaris and International Cooperation, Ministry of Enterprises and Made in Italy, and Italian Chambers of Commerce Association Unioncamere, acting truly as a meeting point between Italian and Arab actors. The Chamber provides assistance and support to the internationalisation processes of companies in these markets, while contributing to the promotion of respective business ecosystems.
The Chamber is dedicated to the promotion and facilitation of economic and cultural relations between the two countries, with a focus on industrial, tourist, scientific, technological, agricultural and financial cooperation. It is committed to encouraging investments from Italy in Arab countries and vice versa, facilitating the implementation of joint projects, promoting the transfer of know-how and technology and offering professional training. The JIACC provides strategic advice, intercultural support and follow-up to guide companies through all stages of internationalisation.

Welcome! Ahlan wa sahlan!

On behalf of the JIACC, I am honored to welcome you. Established in 2015, the JIACC was created by a group of prominent Italian and Arab professionals, supported by both governments and leading industrial and financial groups to meet the growing needs of Italian and Arab companies seeking support to their internationalisation processes, as well as to capitalise on investment opportunities. Our goal is to make the JIACC the primary hub to provide all-round assistance, guidance and practical advice, through our offices in Italy and strategic desks in the MENA region.
As its Chairman, I invite you to connect with us, confident that we can provide the professional guidance you need for your short- and long-term projects.

Pietro Paolo Rampino
Chairman JIACC
